

BARCELONA WALKING TOUR. SCRATCH 2013 BCN

16:00 Hospital de Sant Pau

Our tour starts at 16:00 at “Sant Pau | Dos de Maig” metro Station. It’s L5 (blue line) not the yellow one.

The cheapest way to move around the city is by metro so buy a T-10 (9,80 euros – 10 trips).

Once you arrive to Sant Pau take the exit “Dos de Maig”. I’ll be there wearing a Scratch Cat T-Shirt.

We’ll see the modernist Hospital and then take the Gaudí’s Avenue to the Sagrada Família. We’ll see the nativity and the passion facades and we’ll have some time to take pictures of one of the most special buildings in the world. Its construction started in 1881 and it will be finished (they say) in 2030!

17:30 Sagrada Família

At 17.30 we'll be leaving Sagrada Família. People joining the tour at 17:30 can arrive here by metro (L2 – purple line or L5 - blue line).

Our meeting point will be at “Plaça Sagrada Família” at the crossing of Sicília and Mallorca Streets.

Here you have a picture of our meeting point.

We will see a small of the Eixample neighbourhood as we will enter Gràcia neighbourhood (a town in the middle of the city) till we arrive to Passeig de Gràcia, one of the most beautiful avenues in the city.

18:30 Palau Güell

We'll have our third starting point at Palau Güell, at the crossing of Diagonal Avenue and Passeig de Gràcia. People joining the tour here can arrive by metro using L5 (blue) or L3 (green) Diagonal Station.

We will walk down all Passeig de Gràcia having some time to observe amazing buildings as “La Pedrera”, “Casa Batlló” and “Casa Amatller”.

We will take a turn to the right to walk down “Rambla Catalunya” (not “Las Ramblas”) until we reach Plaça Catalunya, what is considered to be the city centre.

19:30 Plaça Catalunya

People joining the tour at this point have lots of different ways to get here L1 (red) and L3 (green) but also trains coming from the Airport, Citilab,...

We will meet in front of the FC Barcelona store (our soccer team) and we will walk down “Las Ramblas” where we will see the Canaletes Fountain, La Boqueria Market, Liceu (opera hall) and we will enter the Roman part of the city. We will see the Government of Catalonia building and the Town Hall of Barcelona.

Then we will take Bisbe Street to enter the medieval part of the city visiting the Cathedral.

20:30 Cathedral

People joining the tour at the Cathedral can arrive here by metro (L4 – yellow “Jaume I” station). We’ll meet at the Cathedral stairs and we’ll go for dinner to “Set de Gòtic” a modernist style restaurant close to the Cathedral an Plaça Catalunya (where you can take a taxi or train or metro to you hotel).

We’ve made a reservation and we’ll have a menu with several tapas and wine for 27 € per person.
